ADULT COMMUNITY LEARNING GCSE SUCCESS

Adult Community Learning Essex is celebrating after 95 per cent of all learners studying for a GCSE gained a pass in results published yesterday.

Seventy five percent of all learners are also celebrating after achieving an A* to C grade.

Essex County Councillor Jeremy Lucas, Cabinet Member for Environment and Culture said: “Congratulations to all who gained a GCSE with Essex Adult Community Learning. Many of our learners juggle studying with employment, family life or training and it is always incredibly satisfying to see such great results.”

For those interested in studying for a GCSE with Adult Community Learning the course directory for 2011 – 2012 is now available at www.essex.gov.uk/adultlearning The GCSE courses on offer range from Maths and English through to Art and Design and Psychology; with many other subjects and topics available and plenty of non GCSE courses.
