INTRODUCTION

Together, local authorities, developers and infrastructure providers are vital to the delivery of quality, sustainable development: this Protocol is our shared commitment.

1. Figures taken from the Greater Essex Growth & Infrastructure Framework (2017) excluding Thurrock and MHCLG housing need methodology (2017).

Up to 160,000 new homes are being planned for through Local Plans in Greater Essex¹. Between 2016 and 2036, our population is predicted to rise by almost 300,000 – an increase of more than 16%.

In line with national trends in recent years delivery in some areas has failed to keep pace with demand. Over the past decade we have only built around 46,000 homes a year at a national level.

We must therefore plan strategically for growth. We will strive to meet projected demand and build resilient, sustainable communities for the future. Good progress is being made across the county in producing Local Plans to support growth.

But only through collaborative working between councils, communities and developers will we secure the right growth for Essex. This Protocol sets out our commitment to working together.

OUR GOALS

Together we aim to:

- Deliver, through the planning process, the environment for quality and sustainable growth in Essex to strive to meet the county’s employment and housing needs.
- Provide increased efficiency and certainty in the planning process for communities and developers.

COMMITMENT 1: Effective communication

Local planning authorities and developers will positively engage through the pre-application process to allow early identification and resolution of key issues.

There is commitment to involve councillors in the development planning process where possible. There will be an increased opportunity for engagement with councillors, through briefings at the pre-application stage. This will ensure that community issues and needs are highlighted for consideration early in the process and that councillors will have a better understanding of developers’ proposals throughout the process.

High quality and consistent pre-application advice will be provided, with service standards published on the website of each council. This will include clear advice on consultation requirements and the information to be submitted with a formal planning application.

Developers will engage early, openly and collaboratively with community and amenity groups and where relevant, town and parish councils before and when planning applications are made. Through any subsequent planning application, developers will demonstrate how the responses to this engagement have been taken into account and have shaped the scheme.

Developers will engage positively and directly with planners and provide the required, high quality, information in a clear and accessible format within a reasonable timescale, including at pre-application stage. This will include provision of information at least five working days before meetings with council officers/councillors to allow meaningful discussion of issues and resolutions.

Council officers will keep applicants updated with information about their applications to facilitate greater common understanding and consensus on planning matters. This should progress to applicants and councils continuing to liaise regarding implementation and discharge of conditions.

COMMITMENT 2: Ensuring certainty and consistency

The use of Planning Performance Agreements (PPAs) will be encouraged to achieve a more efficient and effective application process. Every encouragement should be made for highway teams, lead local flood authority/strategic urban drainage systems teams, legal departments and other relevant parties to be included in PPAs, which should be established and set up at pre-application stage. A template PPA has been included as an appendix to this Protocol as a guide to users.

Developers and councils will seek buy-in from the statutory consultees to the principles of this agreement.

Local authority officers including housing enabling officers will provide planners with clear and consistent advice at an early stage in the planning process and will maintain dialogue throughout the application process, including the heads of terms of the section 106 agreement.

To avoid commencement delays, developers will seek to closely align their implementation teams with designers/planners – to ensure that permitted schemes can be built as intended and avoid delays caused when new material/alternative layouts are suggested after permission has been granted. Front loading of detail can avoid the need for planning conditions.

Registered providers will be involved at the earliest possible stage in the planning process where affordable housing is required or proposed. However, it must be recognised that the affordable housing type and mix will be specified by the local authority.

Developers will provide draft heads of terms for section 106 agreements in advance of applications and at the earliest opportunity to ensure that all necessary information about the proposed development is available to decision makers. LPAs will report schemes to their development teams at the earliest opportunity to clarify the range and size of any contributions or obligations that may be sought.

All parties will seek to negotiate and conclude section 106 agreements as early as practicable so that planning permissions can be granted without unreasonable delay.

All parties will seek to minimise the number of pre-commencement conditions requiring the submission of further details. To this end, LPAs will seek to circulate a schedule of draft conditions for discussion with applicants prior to the application being taken to committee and a decision issued.

All parties will seek to develop a better shared understanding of design quality standards, with reference to adopted design policies, the Essex Design Guide and, where appropriate, to engage in a design review at the earliest stage.

COMMITMENT 3: Provision of appropriate resources to deliver an efficient, high-quality planning service

All parties will seek to ensure that there are sufficient planners and built/natural/historic environment specialists with the right skills and qualifications to incubate and deliver schemes.

They will work collaboratively and pro-actively to manage development proposals through the planning system, and facilitate sustainable development.

Developers will ensure sufficient resources to make clear, evidenced, quality applications. Developers commit to responding in a timely manner to matters arising through the consultation period. This will ensure that development proposals are made with sufficient and accurate supporting information and are well-presented, enabling planners to efficiently manage the application through the planning system for determination within the statutory period.

Developers, where appropriate, will provide financial support to authorities to secure resources via Planning Performance Agreements, to assist in the efficient management of larger and more complex schemes.

Charges for pre-application advice will be sufficient to support a high quality pre-application advice service, maximising the availability of planning officers to provide advice to developers and developers should utilise this service at the earliest opportunity. Councils will ensure that sufficient resources are available to support this service.

Developers will provide the requisite background information to support pre-application processes well in advance of programmed meetings to support an informed exchange of ideas and suitable guidance from the council.

COMMITMENT 4: Opportunities for training

Councils will work with developers and other bodies to provide training opportunities for their staff and other groups, including councillors, to build capacity and to promote a common understanding of issues, approaches and good practice.

Councils commit to offering regular training on planning issues and developers will support opportunities for site visits including completed schemes.

Monitoring success

This protocol sets out a shared approach to new development between councils and developers. Essex Developers Group, Essex Housing Officers Group and Essex Planning Officers Association will periodically review the implementation and effectiveness of the Protocol and share best practice that emerges from such reviews.
